Shakespeare's England: The Play's The Thing

with Alissa Branch

Join esteemed actor, director, and Shakespeare scholar Alissa Branch on an insightful tour of London and Stratford-upon-Avon, developed to deepen your understanding of how Shakespeare's words come to life, from page to stage.

This unique experience explores key locations such as London's iconic Globe Theatre, where you'll witness how the historical setting shapes the performances of his plays. In Stratford-upon-Avon, visit Shakespeare's birthplace and the Royal Shakespeare Theatre, gaining a firsthand look at how actors and directors interpret his works today. Alissa Branch's expert commentary will guide you through Shakespeare's creative process, from writing to performance, uncovering the techniques that have made his plays resonate for centuries. Whether you're a theater enthusiast or literary scholar, this tour offers a profound exploration of Shakespeare's enduring artistry on the stage.

Your Journey Expert

Alissa Branch is an Associate Professor of Acting in the Helmerich School of Drama at the University of Oklahoma, where she created an advanced Shakespeare performance curriculum. She is also an actor and director whose productions have won multiple Kennedy Center awards. Her directorial credits include Shakespeare's Julius Caesar and Twelfth Night, among other plays. She has studied acting at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts and Shakespeare's Globe, and she earned her MA in Drama from Washington University in St. Louis.

Itinerary

Day 1: Act I Welcome to London

---

Arrive at London's Heathrow Airport on individual flights from your home city. Transfer independently to your hotel. Later, gather with your fellow travelers and meet Professor Alissa Branch, who will be your expert for this journey. Join her for an introductory lecture about surprising ways you can approach Shakespeare. Enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant and discuss your upcoming journey through Shakespeare's England.

Included Meal: Dinner

Accommodation: Royal Leonardo Hotel London City (2026) or Hotel Riu Plaza Victoria (2027)

Day 2: Act II Shakespeare's England

Embark on a guided Shakespearean walking tour through London. Follow in the footsteps of the famous playwright as you visit landmarks like Guildhall, St. Paul's Cathedral, and Leadenhall Market, finishing at the Globe Theatre for a behind-the-scenes tour. In the afternoon, explore the National Portrait Gallery's impressive Tudor and Elizabethan collection, followed by a traditional Afternoon Tea in Covent Garden where you will be joined by a special guest. End your day by joining Professor Branch at a captivating Shakespeare play at a renowned London theater. (Performance schedule TBC)

Included Meals: Breakfast, Afternoon Tea

Accommodation: Royal Leonardo Hotel London City (2026) or Hotel Riu Plaza Victoria (2027)

Day 3: Act III The First Folio and a New Museum

Gather this morning with your fellow travelers and Professor Branch for a lecture as she continues to reveal the secrets to unlocking Shakespeare's language. Visit The British Library for a viewing of Shakespeare's First Folio. As plays in Shakespeare's day were meant to be performed and not read, plays were rarely printed. As such, many were lost. But a small cadre of Shakespeare's friends and actors from the King's Men acting company took on the complicated task of compiling his complete works into a bound volume. It was published in 1623, seven years after his death. Then, visit the newly opened Museum of Shakespeare, an immersive, interactive experience, built on the foundation of the Elizabethan Theater, The Curtain Playhouse. William Shakespeare's acting troupe, The Lord Chamberlain's Men, used the Curtain Theatre as their base from 1597-1599. In that time, it is believed that Henry V debuted at the Curtain and that other famous plays were performed there, including the iconic Romeo and Juliet. Enjoy an evening free to explore London.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Act IV Kenilworth Castle

Join Professor Branch for a workshop on Shakespeare's verse and the hidden tricks for understanding it. She will give you invaluable insight into how an actor approaches his language, and you will have the opportunity to try speaking some verse yourself. No experience necessary! Then, depart London for the English countryside. Once one of the country's most formidable medieval fortresses, Kenilworth Castle was later transformed into a spectacular Elizabethan palace by Robert Dudley in an effort to impress his queen, whom he had hoped to marry. Explore the mighty medieval keep, climb up Tudor towers, and wander through the unique Elizabethan Garden. Continue to Shakespeare's birthplace, Stratford-upon-Avon. This evening, join Professor Branch and take in a show at the iconic Royal Shakespeare Theatre.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Picnic Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Swan's Nest Hotel

Day 5: Act V Stratford-upon-Avon

Stroll through Stratford-upon-Avon, where history comes alive at every turn. Begin at Shakespeare's Birthplace, a charming half-timbered Elizabethan house where the playwright was born and spent his early years. It's here that he and his wife, Anne Hathaway, embarked on their married life together. Next, head to Shakespeare's Schoolroom and Guildhall, where young William's education took shape and laid the foundation for his literary genius. A short walk will bring you to Shakespeare's New Place, the home where he lived for nearly 20 years. At Holy Trinity Church, stand before his final resting place, surrounded by the peaceful serenity of the churchyard. Just a short distance outside of town, find Anne Hathaway's Cottage, a picturesque, thatched home where Shakespeare's bride grew up. Finally, make your way to the village of Wilmcote for a visit to Mary Arden's Farm, the childhood home of Shakespeare's mother. This farm offers a rare look at the rural life that helped shape his early experiences. Celebrate your journey with a farewell dinner with fellow travelers and Professor Branch this evening.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Swan's Nest Hotel

Day 6: Epilogue—Parting is Such Sweet Sorrow

Check out of your hotel in Stratford-upon-Avon and depart as a group for London's Heathrow Airport for individual flights home or onward.

Included Meal: Breakfast
