Principals Indemnity – Statutory Benefits, Common Law and Waiver of Subrogation

Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981

Liability

- 1 Where:
 - 1.1 the Principal named in this Principal's Extension Schedule is liable pursuant to Section 175 of the Workers Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981 (unless section 175AA applies) to pay workers compensation to or for your Worker for the linjury to that Worker that arises out of and occurs during the performance of the work required to be done by you under a contract; and
 - 1.2 the Worker is employed or engaged in, and at the time when the injury occurs is working in, the Business covered by the Policy, we agree to indemnify the Principal against that liability.
- 2 The Principal's entitlement to indemnity:
 - 2.1 shall be subject to, governed and limited by the Policy Period, limits of indemnity, Exclusions, Conditions and other terms of the Policy, except Conditions 9, 10, 11, and 14 (but preserving the right of cancellation), as if the Principal were the employer of your Worker;
 - 2.2 shall be excluded in the event or to the extent that you are not entitled to indemnity under the Policy for your liability to pay workers' compensation for the Worker's disability.

Damages Liability

- 3 Where:
 - 3.1 Injury to, or death of, a person employed by you under a contract of service ("Worker") arises out of and occurs during the performance of the work required to be done by you under the contract specified in this Principal's Extension Schedule;
 - 3.2 the Worker is employed in, and at the time when the Injury occurs is working in, the Business covered by the Policy; and
 - 3.3 the linjury or death is caused by your negligent conduct for which the Principal named in this Schedule is vicariously liable to pay damages or contribution for that Injury or death, we agree to indemnify the Principal against that vicarious liability.
- 4 The Principal's entitlement to indemnity:
 - 4.1 shall be subject to, governed and limited by the Policy Period, limits of indemnity, Exclusions, Conditions and other terms of the Policy, except Conditions 9, 10, 11 and 14 (but preserving the right of cancellation), as if the Principal were the employer of your injured or deceased Worker;
- 5 Named Principals only BLANKET

Waiver of Subrogation

Where the Principal is liable to pay Damages to your Worker by reason of the negligence or breach of statutory duty of the Principal or its employees or agents we agree to waive all rights of subrogation against the Principal to recover indemnity, contribution, Damages or any payment from the Principal in respect of Damages or workers' compensation payable by you to the Worker.

For the purposes of this extension, where sub-contracts are made:

- (a) if the Principal is convicted under a statute of an offence arising out of or in connection with the occurrence of the event which caused or aggravated the Injury; and
- (b) the conduct or act(s) or omission (s) of the Principal are such as to constitute gross negligence displaying a contumelious or outrageous disregard for the health and safety of the employed Worker, then all indemnity to the Principal is null & void and our normal rights of subrogation will apply.

Definition of "Principal"

For the purposes of this extension "Principal" shall mean any party for whom you perform work during the Policy Period, provided that the work is within, the scope of your Business and for the purpose of the Principal's business
