1 SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

- 1.1 The licence granted under these Terms of Service shall be ongoing until terminated in accordance with the terms of these Terms of Service and/or Commercial Terms.
- 1.2 The Customer acknowledges that an Authorised User that creates an Account on behalf of the Customer is authorised to establish and maintain the Account.
- 1.3 The use of DAS by the Customer and any Authorised Users is subject to:
  - (a) these Terms of Service; and
  - (b) the Commercial Terms.
- 1.4 The Customer agrees to pay the Fees in accordance with the pricing agreed in the Commercial Terms as and when they fall due.
- 1.5 Where there is a conflict between these terms, and any Commercial Terms, the Commercial Terms shall prevail.

2 AUTHORISED USERS

- 2.1 Each Authorised User must accept, and is bound by, these Terms of Service. If any Authorised User does not accept these Terms of Service or breaches these Terms of Service, they will not be provided access to DAS.

2.2 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) it is the Customer's sole responsibility to ensure that any access rights to DAS for any Authorised User are appropriate to that person's role and position; and
- (b) the Customer is solely responsible and liable for any act or omission of any Authorised User in respect of the Authorised User's access to or use of DAS.

3 USING DAS

3.1 General

- (a) To access and use DAS the Customer must register for an Account by providing all information indicated as required.
- (b) The Customer must keep their Account information correct and up-to-date at all times.
- (c) The Company has no liability to the Customer for any Authorised User or Other User that:
  - (i) imports or exports any data into or from DAS;
  - (ii) shares any Reports or any information contained therein; and/or
  - (iii) accesses any Customer Data via DAS.
- (d) The Customer may apply for an Account by registering via DAS or otherwise entering into a contract with the Company and accepting these Terms of Service. The Company may permit or deny the Customer an Account in its absolute discretion.

3.2 Features

- (a) The Company shall provide the Customer and its Authorised Users with access to and use of the features as agreed between the parties and provided within DAS from time to time

3.3 Reports

- (a) The Customer is responsible for ensuring that all Customer Data that is entered into DAS is complete and accurate.
- (b) DAS generates Reports based on both Customer Data and DAS Data.
- (c) The Customer shall be solely responsible for ensuring that all Customer Data is accurate for the purpose of generating Reports. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall have no liability in relation to the accuracy of Customer Data.

- (d) The Company shall not be liable for any Report that is inaccurate as a result of any information listed in clause 3.3(b). The Customer must not rely on Reports prima facie without regard to other considerations and due diligence. The Company will not be liable in any circumstances from any loss or injury suffered by the Customer because of decisions made on the basis of Reports.
- (e) The Company makes no representation that the Customer will achieve particular results from the use of DAS.

4 DAS DATA

- 4.1 The Company owns and will continue to own DAS Data.
- 4.2 The Company grants the Customer and their Authorised Users a limited, revocable, worldwide licence to access and use the DAS Data, via DAS, for the duration, and on the terms, of these Terms of Service and any Commercial Terms.
- 4.3 DAS Data is compiled from Third Party Data Sources, and while reasonable care is taken by the Company, to the fullest extent possible under law, the Company does not warrant the accuracy, completeness or currency of DAS Data, and the Company is not liable for the use of or reliance upon any DAS Data.
- 4.4 The Customer and its Authorised Users agree that, as consideration for its access to DAS, it shall not export any DAS Data to be recompiled or assembled outside of DAS, unless explicitly agreed to in writing by the Company.
- 4.5 The use of DAS Data may be further increased or restricted under any Commercial Terms between the Customer and the Company, which shall apply to each Authorised User.
- 4.6 The Customer agrees to comply, and must ensure that its Authorised Users comply, with any reasonable written policies set by DAS in respect of Third Party Data Sources.

5 CUSTOMER DATA

- 5.1 The Customer grants the Company an immediate, worldwide, royalty-free right and license to access, use, modify and incorporate the Customer Data within DAS:
  - (a) for the purposes of providing, maintaining and updating DAS;
  - (b) to prevent or address service, security, support or technical issues;
  - (c) as required by law; and
  - (d) as expressly permitted in writing by the Customer.
- 5.2 The Customer agrees and acknowledges that:
  - (a) due to the nature of DAS (and being the purpose for which the Customer uses DAS) Customer Data may, due to the Customer's use of DAS, be combined with other data sets and become incorporated in new data (New Data);

- (b) the Customer has no rights or interests in, and the Company has no liability to the Customer in respect of, that New Data (except to the extent it is available to the Customer in DAS or otherwise under this Agreement); and
  - (c) to the extent Customer Data is incorporated as New Data the Customer acknowledges that such Customer Data may not be able to be practically deleted.
- 5.3 The Company will make all reasonable efforts to keep Customer Data confidential and secure in accordance with these Terms of Service. The Customer agrees that the Company is not responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any Customer Data by the Customer and its Authorised Users.
- 5.4 The Company accepts no liability for the accuracy of Customer Data.
- 5.5 The Customer is responsible for the acquisition, accuracy, quality and legality of any content uploaded by the Customer and its Authorised Users, and the creation, access and/or use of the Customer Data by its Authorised Users.
- 5.6 The Customer is liable for any intentionally or recklessly erroneous, corrupted or false data uploaded to DAS by the Customer or its Authorised Users, and the Customer indemnifies the Company for any loss, damage, cost or expense that the Company may suffer or incur as a result of or in connection with that data, including to Other Users.
- 5.7 The Company may suspend accessibility to Customer Data that the Company determines is illegal, offensive, indecent or objectionable in its sole discretion.
- 5.8 The Company is not under any obligation to remove or delete Customer Data uploaded to DAS with the express intent of that data being shared across DAS and used by Other Users.
- 5.9 The Company may delete Customer Data from its systems on termination of these Terms of Service.
- 5.10 For the avoidance of doubt, it shall be the Customer's obligation to delete all Customer Data it wishes to have deleted from DAS, and that nothing in this Agreement shall obligate the Company to delete Customer Data from DAS without a written request from the Customer and the payment of the Company's reasonable costs.
- 5.11 If the Customer makes a request in writing to the Company that its Customer Data be removed (to the extent the Customer cannot remove it), the Company agrees to remove all relevant Customer Data within a reasonable timeframe, as far as is practicable so long as the Customer is not in breach of these Terms of Service.

6 FEES

- 6.1 DAS is a paid service and fees apply to the Customer to access and use DAS. Fees are as agreed between the Company and the Customer under the Commercial Terms.

6.2 The Company may also charge an Implementation Fee for any Consulting Services as agreed between the parties in the Commercial Terms.

6.3 Suspension

- (a) The Company may suspend the Customer's Account (and the accounts of any of its Authorised Users) should any Fees be outstanding to the Company at any time. This may, in time, result in termination of access to DAS for all of a Customer's Authorised Users.
- (b) The Customer agrees that the Company shall not be liable in any way for any valid termination or suspension of the Customer's access to DAS.

7 GENERAL CONDITIONS

7.1 Licence

- (a) By accepting the terms and conditions of these Terms of Service, the Customer is granted a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferrable and revocable licence to access and use DAS for the duration of any Commercial Terms, in accordance with the terms and conditions of these Terms of Service and any Commercial Terms.
- (b) The Company may issue the licence to the Customer on further terms or limitations (including the number of users or volume of use or reports) as it sees fit.
- (c) The Company may revoke or suspend the Customer's licence(s) in its absolute discretion for any reason that it sees fit, including for breach of the terms and conditions in these Terms of Service by the Customer.

7.2 Modification of Terms

- (a) These Terms of Service may be updated by the Company from time to time.
- (b) Where the Company modifies the terms, it will provide the Customer and its Authorised Users with written notice, and the Customer and its Authorised Users will be required to accept the modified terms in order to continue using DAS. If the Customer and its Authorised Users continue using DAS after being provided with modified terms, they will be deemed to have accepted those modified terms.

7.3 Software-as-a-Service

- (a) The Customer agrees and accepts that DAS is:
  - (i) hosted by the Company and shall only be installed, accessed and maintained by the Company, accessed using the internet or other connection to the Company servers and is not available 'locally' from the User's systems; and
  - (ii) managed and supported exclusively by the Company from the Company servers and that no 'back-end' access to DAS is available to the Customer unless expressly agreed in writing.

- (b) As a hosted and managed service, the Company reserves the right to upgrade, maintain, tune, backup, amend, add or remove features, redesign, improve or otherwise alter DAS.
- (c) The Company shall not exercise its rights under clause (b) in a manner that would fundamentally decrease the utility of DAS to the Customer, other than in accordance with the terms of these Terms of Service.

7.4 Support

- (a) The Company shall provide reasonable support services in the manner agreed between the Customer and the Company from time to time.
- (b) The Company reserves the right to require the payment of reasonable fees for non-standard support requests prior to the provision of such support.

7.5 Use & Availability

- (a) The Customer agrees that it shall only use DAS for legal purposes and shall not use it to engage any conduct that is unlawful, immoral, threatening, abusive or in a way that is deemed unreasonable by the Company in its discretion.
- (b) The Customer is solely responsible for the security of its username and password for access to DAS. The Customer shall notify the Company as soon as it becomes aware of any unauthorised access to the Customer's Account.
- (c) The Customer agrees that the Company shall provide access to DAS to the best of its abilities, however, access to DAS may be prevented by issues outside of its control.

7.6 Privacy

- (a) The Company maintains the Privacy Policy in compliance with the provisions of the Privacy Act and the GDPR with respect to personal information that it collects about the Customer, its Authorised Users and other individuals.
- (b) The Privacy Policy does not apply to how the Customer handles personal information. If necessary, under the Privacy Act and/or the GDPR, it is the Customer's responsibility to meet the obligations of the Privacy Act and/or GDPR by implementing a privacy policy in accordance with law.
- (c) DAS may use cookies (a small electronic file) to improve the Customer and its Authorised User's experience while browsing, while also sending browsing information back to the Company. The Customer and its Authorised Users may manage how they handle cookies in their own browser settings.

- (d) In accordance with s23 of the Privacy Act 2020 (NZ) DAS complies with NZ privacy requirements by complying with the Privacy Act.

7.7 Data

- (a) Security. The Company takes the security of DAS and the privacy of the Customer and its Authorised Users very seriously. The Customer and its Authorised Users agree that the Customer and its Authorised Users shall not do anything to prejudice the security or privacy of the Company's systems or the information on them.
- (b) Transmission. The Company shall do all things reasonable to ensure that the transmission of data occurs according to accepted industry standards and the Privacy Policy. It is up to the Customer to ensure that any transmission standards meet the Customer's operating and legal requirements.
- (c) Storage. Data that is stored by the Company shall be stored according to accepted industry standards, and the Privacy Policy.
- (d) Backup. The Company shall perform backups of its entire systems in such manner, at such times and intervals as is reasonable for its business purposes. The Company does not warrant that it is able to backup or recover specific Customer Data from any period of time unless so stated in writing by the Company.

7.8 Intellectual Property

- (a) Trademarks. The Company has moral, registered and unregistered rights in its trademarks and the Customer and its Authorised Users shall not copy, alter, use or otherwise deal in the marks without the prior written consent of the Company.
- (b) Proprietary Information. The Company may use software and other proprietary systems and Intellectual Property for which the Company has appropriate authority to use, and the Customer and its Authorised Users agree that such is protected by copyright, trademarks, patents, proprietary rights and other laws, both domestically and internationally. The Customer and its Authorised Users warrant that they shall not infringe on any third-party rights through the use of DAS, in particular those rights of a Third Party Data Source.
- (c) DAS. The Customer and its Authorised Users agree and accept that DAS is the Intellectual Property of the Company and the Customer and its Authorised Users further warrant that by using DAS the Customer and its Authorised Users will not:
  - (i) copy DAS, or DAS Data, or the services that it provides for the Customer and its Authorised Users own commercial purposes; and
  - (ii) directly or indirectly copy, recreate, decompile, reverse engineer or otherwise obtain, modify or use any source or object code, architecture, algorithms contained in DAS or any documentation associated with it.

- (d) Content. All content (excluding Customer Data) submitted to the Company, whether via DAS or directly by other means, becomes and remains the Intellectual Property of the Company, including (without limitation) any source code, analytics, insights, ideas, enhancements, feature requests, suggestions or other information provided by the Customer and its Authorised Users or any other party with respect to DAS or derived from such content. DAS may use such content to improve its services to the Customer and Other Users.

7.9 Third Party Dependencies

The Customer and its Authorised Users agree and acknowledge that DAS has third party dependencies which may affect its availability, including (without limitation) Third Party Data Sources, internet service providers and hosting services, and that the Company has no means of controlling the availability of such dependencies and shall not be liable for any interruptions to such and any such interruption does not form part of any failure to meet a service levels agreement.

7.10 Confidentiality

- (a) The Company agrees to keep all other Customer Data in the strictest confidence, and to the extent Customer Data is accessed and/or received by the Company it shall be deemed as Confidential Information for the purposes of these Terms of Service.
- (b) Each party acknowledges and agrees that:
- (i) the Confidential Information is secret, confidential and valuable to the disclosing party (Discloser);
  - (ii) it owes an obligation of confidence to the Discloser concerning the Confidential Information;
  - (iii) it must not disclose the Confidential Information to a third party except as permitted in these Terms of Service;
  - (iv) all Intellectual Property rights remain vested in the Discloser but disclosure of Confidential Information does not in any way transfer or assign any rights or interests in the Intellectual Property to the receiving party; and
  - (v) any breach or threatened breach by the receiving party of an obligation under these Terms of Service may cause the Discloser immediate and irreparable harm for which damages alone may not be an adequate remedy. Consequently the Discloser has the right, in addition to other remedies available at law or in equity, to seek injunctive relief against the receiving party (and its agents, assigns, employees, officers and directors, personally) or to compel specific performance of this clause.
- (c) A party must notify the Discloser in writing, giving full details known to it immediately, when it becomes aware of:

- (i) any actual, suspected, likely or threatened breach by it of any obligations it has in relation to the Confidential Information.
  - (ii) any actual, suspected, likely or threatened breach by any person of any obligation in relation to the Confidential Information; or
  - (iii) any actual, suspected, likely or threatened theft, loss, damage, or unauthorized access, use or disclosure of or to any Confidential Information.
- (d) The receiving party must promptly take all steps that the Discloser may reasonably require and must co-operate with any investigation, litigation or other action of the Discloser or of a related body corporate if there is:
- (i) any actual, suspected, likely or threatened breach of a term of these Terms of Service; or
  - (ii) any theft, loss, damage or unauthorized access, use or disclosure of or to any Confidential Information that is or was in its possession or control.

7.11 Liability & Indemnity

- (a) The Customer and its Authorised Users agree that they use DAS at their own risk, and that the Customer's and its Authorised User's use of DAS is authorised by the Customer.
- (b) The Customer acknowledges that the Company is not responsible for the conduct or activities of its Authorised Users and/or Other Users and that the Company is not liable for such under any circumstances.
- (c) The Customer agrees to indemnify the Company for any loss, damage, cost or expense that the Company may suffer or incur as a result of or in connection with an Authorised User's use of or conduct in connection with DAS, including any breach by an Authorised User of these Terms, whether or not such use was authorised by the Customer.
- (d) In no circumstances will the Company be liable for any direct, incidental, consequential or indirect damages, personal injury, death, damage to property, loss of property, loss or corruption of data, loss of profits, goodwill, bargain or opportunity, loss of anticipated savings or any other similar or analogous loss resulting from the Customer and its Authorised Users' access to, or use of, or inability to use DAS, and in particular any decisions made in reliance on Reports, whether based on warranty, contract, tort, negligence, in equity or any other legal theory, and whether or not the Company knew or should have known of the possibility of such damage, loss, personal injury or death, or business interruption of any type, whether in tort, contract or otherwise.
- (e) Certain rights and remedies may be available under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) or similar legislation of other States or Territories and may not be permitted to be excluded, restricted or modified. Apart from those that cannot be excluded, the Company and the Company's related entities exclude all conditions and warranties that may be implied by law. To the extent permitted by law, the Company's liability for breach of any implied warranty or condition that cannot be excluded is restricted, at the Company's option to:

- (i) the re-supply of services or payment of the cost of re-supply of services; or
- (ii) the replacement or repair of goods or payment of the cost of replacement or repair.

7.12 Termination

- (a) Unless agreed otherwise in the Commercial Terms, either party may terminate these Terms of Service by giving the other party no less than 1 months' written notice, and access to DAS shall terminate at the end of the Customer's billing cycle active at the expiry of that notice period.
- (b) Termination of these Terms of Service is without prejudice to and does not affect the accrued rights or remedies of any of the parties arising in any way out of these Terms of Service up to the date of expiry or termination.
- (c) Termination does not affect any of the rights accrued by a party prior to termination, and the rights and obligations under clauses 7.8, 7.10, 7.11, 7.13, 7.14 and 7.15 survive termination of these Terms of Service.
- (d) Any breach of these Terms of Service by the Customer gives rise to an immediate right to terminate without further notice by the Company. The Company will terminate the Terms of Service by sending notice in writing to the email address used for logging into DAS by the Customer.
- (e) In cases of termination of the Terms of Service under 7.12(d), the Company will require the Customer to return any DAS Data and New Data that it may possess outside of DAS save for any such data that is in a static form such as a PDF file.

7.13 Dispute Resolution

- (a) If any dispute arises between the parties in connection with these Terms of Service (Dispute), then either party may notify the other of the Dispute with a notice (Dispute Notice) which:
  - (i) includes or is accompanied by full and detailed particulars of the Dispute; and
  - (ii) is delivered within 10 Business Days of the circumstances giving rise to the Dispute first occurring.
- (b) Within 10 Business Days after a Dispute Notice is given, a representative (with the authority to resolve the dispute) parties must meet (virtually or otherwise) and seek to resolve the Dispute.
- (c) Subject to clause (d), a party must not bring court proceedings in respect of any Dispute unless it first complies with the requirements of the dispute resolution mechanism outlined in this clause.
- (d) Nothing in this clause prevents either party from instituting court proceedings to seek urgent injunctive, interlocutory or declaratory relief in respect of a Dispute.

- (e) Despite the existence of a Dispute, the parties must continue to perform their respective obligations under this document and any related agreements.
- (f) Notification of a Dispute by either party is done by sending written communication to:
  - (i) the Customer via the email address used by the Customer to establish the DAS account;
  - (ii) the Company via the email address: jonathonc@dasintel.io

7.14 Electronic Communication, Amendment & Assignment

- (a) The words in this clause that are defined in the Electronic Transactions Act 1999 (Cth) have the same meaning.
- (b) The Customer and its Authorised Users can direct notices, enquiries, complaints and so forth to the Company as set out in these Terms of Service. The Company will notify the Customer of a change of details from time to time.
- (c) The Company will send the Customer and its Authorised Users notices and other correspondence to the details that the Customer/Authorised User submits to the Company, or that the Customer/Authorised User notifies the Company of from time to time. It is the Customer's/Authorised User's responsibility to update its contact details as they change.
- (d) A consent, notice or communication under these Terms of Service is effective if it is sent as an electronic communication unless required to be physically delivered under law.
- (e) The Customer may not assign or otherwise create an interest in these Terms of Service without prior written consent of the Company (which shall not be unreasonably withheld).
- (f) The Company may assign or otherwise create an interest in its rights under these Terms of Service by giving written notice to the Customer.

7.15 General

- (a) Special Conditions. The parties may agree to any Special Conditions to these Terms of Service in writing.
- (b) Prevalence. To the extent these Terms of Service is in conflict with, or inconsistent with, the terms of any other agreement between the Company and the Customer, any Commercial Terms, or any special conditions made under these Terms of Service, as relevant, the terms of those other agreements or special conditions shall prevail.

- (c) Disclaimer. Each party acknowledges that it has not relied on any representation, warranty or statement made by any other party, other than as set out in these Terms of Service.
- (d) Relationship. The relationship of the parties to these Terms of Service does not form a joint venture or partnership.
- (e) Waiver. No clause of these Terms of Service will be deemed waived and no breach excused unless such waiver or consent is provided in writing.
- (f) Further Assurances. Each party must do anything necessary (including executing agreements and documents) to give full effect to these Terms of Service and the transaction facilitated by it.
- (g) Governing Law. These Terms of Service are governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia. Each of the parties hereby submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of courts with jurisdiction there.
- (h) Severability. Any clause of these Terms of Service, which is invalid or unenforceable, is ineffective to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability without affecting the remaining clauses of these Terms of Service.
- (i) Interpretation. The following rules apply unless the context requires otherwise:
  - (i) Headings are only for convenience and do not affect interpretation.
  - (ii) The singular includes the plural and the opposite also applies.
  - (iii) If a word or phrase is defined, any other grammatical form of that word or phrase has a corresponding meaning.
  - (iv) A reference to a clause refers to clauses in these Terms of Service.
  - (v) A reference to legislation is to that legislation as amended, re-enacted or replaced, and includes any subordinate legislation issued under it.
  - (vi) Mentioning anything after includes, including, or similar expressions, does not limit anything else that might be included.
  - (vii) A reference to a party to these Terms of Service or another agreement or document includes that party's successors and permitted substitutes and assigns (and, where applicable, the party's legal personal representatives).
  - (viii) A reference to a person, corporation, trust, partnership, unincorporated body or other entity includes any of them.
  - (ix) A reference to information is to information of any kind in any form or medium, whether formal or informal, written or unwritten, for example, computer software or programs, concepts, data, drawings, ideas, knowledge, procedures, source codes or object codes, technology or trade secrets.
